

Il était une Dame Tartine

Il était une Dame Tartine
Dans un beau palais de beurre frais
La muraille était de praline
Le Parquet était de croquet
La chambre à coucher de crème de lait
Le lit de biscuit, les rideaux d'anis

Elle épousa Monsieur Gimblette
Coiffé d'un beau fromage blanc
Son chapeau était de galette
Son habit était vol-au-vent
Culotte de nougat,
Gilet d'chocolat,
Bas de caramel
Et souliers de miel

Quand elle s'en allait à la ville
Elle avait un petit bonnet
Les rubans étaient de pastille
Le fond était de résiné
Sa petite carriole
Était de croquignole
Ses petits chevaux
Étaient de lait chaud

Et leur fille,
la belle Charlotte
Avait un nez de massepain
De superbes dents
de compote
Des oreilles
de craquelin
Je la vois garnir
Sa robe de plaisirs
Avec un rouleau
De pâte d'abricots

Voici que la fée
Carabosse
Jalouse et de mauvaise humeur
Renversa
d'un coup de sa bosse
Le palais sucré du bonheur

Pour le rebâtir
Veuillez à loisir
Donner bons parents
Du sucre aux enfants !

Once there was a Lady Toast
In a beautiful palace made of fresh butter
The wall were made of praline
The floor was made of almond dry cake
The bedroom was made of sweet cream
The bed was made of cookies and the curtains were made of anise.

She married Mr Gimblette
His hair was made of cream cheese
His hat was a pancake
He had a costume made of flaky dough
Pants made of candy
A chocolate vest
Caramel socks
And shoes made of honey.

When she would go to the city
She wore a little hat
Whose ribbons were made of candies
And a licorice top
Her little cart
Was had been build with cup cakes
And had small horses
Made of warm milk.

And their daughter,
the pretty Charlotte
Had a marzipan nose Splendid teeth made of apple sauce
Ears made
of small cookies
I see her spreading
On her fun dress
With a roller
A coat of apricot paste.

Suddenly
Carrabosse, the fairy
Jealous and in a terrible mood Knocked down with a blow from her hump
The happy palace made of sugar!

So that it can be built again
Please be kind
Good parents and give Treats to all the children!
